

TROY DOUGLAS

- Age: 26
- Company name and title: I currently work as Mechanical Engineer for the Customer Solutions Department at Festo Corporation in Hauppauge. I design custom automation systems for various companies across the U.S. and around the globe.
- Twitter handle: @PyriteAlchemist
- Education: Master of Science in Mechanical Engineering, Stony Brook University, 2012 and a Bachelor of Engineering in Mechanical Engineering, Stony Brook University, 2012
- How many hours do you sleep? 6
- What do you eat for breakfast? I usually eat oatmeal with apples
- What is on your home screen? A picture of my girlfriend and I at the Fire Museum in Charleston, SC.
- What app can't you live without? Amazon
- Are there any social platforms that you refuse to participate in? Vine, never really saw the point.
- What is your favorite city; why? That would definitely have to be New York City. Just the level of energy and excitement, regardless of the time of day. I love the fast paced atmosphere!
- Who is your favorite music artist? I would have to say Halestorm.
- What keeps you up at night? I tend to be a bit over analytical, and that can sometimes lead to overthinking situations.
- Name one thing about the millennial generation that most people don't know: There are so many people striving for and achieving success by making their own way and taking the road less traveled.
- What about your job most excites you? I never work on the same thing twice. Every day is something new and I'm always learning about new technology and ideas.
- What do you look for in an employer? I look for stability, room for growth, atmosphere, and charity.
- Where do you prefer to work? From home, office, traveling? That really depends. While I do enjoy the peace and quiet from working at home, I truly enjoy the camaraderie that has formed with all of my coworkers.
- What old fashioned values do you think are still important today? I would have to say, saying please and thank you, holding the door for people, and even just giving people a simple smile or hello when passing.
- If you could pitch one person, who would it be? I would have to say my brother. Despite all of the hardships and the fact that we sometimes fight as brothers do, he's always seemed to come out with a smile and we always have a blast with everything that we do.
