

PLEASE STAND UP

Good People
Doing Good Things

Jack Sullivan

The Long Island Volunteer Center awarded retired executive Jack Sullivan a Lifetime Achievement Award in Volunteerism and inducted him into the Center's Volunteer Hall of Fame. Sullivan has volunteered for 18 straight years at Abilities, Inc., an Albertson-based org dedicated to obtaining gainful employment for individuals with disabilities. abilitiesinc.org.

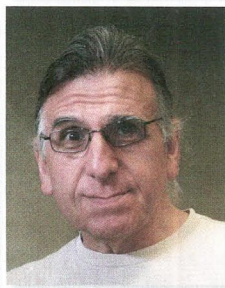

Ken Kern

Ken Kern, elder law attorney at Genser Dubow Genser & Cona in Melville, was honored by the Long Island Alzheimer's Foundation with the Outstanding Legal Professional Service Award. He is highly skilled in elder law and an advocate and case manager for Alzheimer's sufferers. liaf.org, genserlaw.com.

Alan Perlman

Oakdale resident Alan Perlman, working as a volunteer mentor for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Long Island since 2005 has been selected as Big Brother of the Year in New York State. He is being commended for his steadfast dedication to the positive growth of Little Brother Demarcus for the past five years. bbbsli.org.

Hans Zobel

School-Business Partnerships of Long Island, Inc., a non profit org dedicated to enabling businesses to share responsibility for school change and curriculum reform has named Water Mill resident Hans Zobel the chairman of the organization. Zobel is Managing Partner of JPM Associates LLC, a strategic investment company and an expert lecturer about worker's skill levels in US manufacturing. sbpli-lifirst.org.

»» TO NOMINATE A GOOD PERSON DOING GOOD THINGS FOR PLEASE STAND UP, EMAIL PSU@LIPULSE.COM