

CELEBRATIONS

Gina Seymour, the library media specialist at Jolly High School, was named a "Blazer & Blazer" in the library industry by the national publication Library Journal.

Bill Lohry and James Kinchell have been appointed as the new principals of St. Thomas Street Elementary School in Rockingham and Edward J. Bratt Elementary School in Bohemia, respectively.

Larry Tumbull, a resident of Matthews, has been named as FORTY Bohemia-Competition co-director. Tumbull will put upon his experience in the field of science and technology to work with the current co-directors, David Johnson and Thomas Rowell, to assist with the day-to-day planning and management of the program and its associated events.

Lauren German, a student at East Hampton High School, earned First Place in LongHorn Reserve's Student Journal X.

German was awarded First Place in the Book Arts Category for her piece, "Through My Eyes."

Sam Hazzan, the boys' soccer coach at Cleveland-John H. Glenn High School, was recently named a New York State Public High School Athletic Association's Coach of the Year for the 2016-17 school year. Hazzan, who has coached at the high school for more than 20 years, is now in the running for the Region 1 title of the National Federation High School Coach of the Year Award.

Peggy Miller, owner of The Clover Patch in Falmouth, received a Women in Business Award from POWER of Women Exchanging Resources. Miller was honored for her hard work and success as a woman business owner, as well as her dedication to the community.

Sophie Okunow, a graduate of Rocky Point High School, received the top $1,000 scholarship from King Kullen, as part of its 27th annual King Leslie H. Taylor, a licensed attorney with the Middleboro-based general Taylor Law Group, P.C., was recently elected as a new board member to the Board of Directors of the Dog Foundation and America's Holdings. Since beginning her work with both organizations in 2016, Taylor has been a volunteer puppy raiser, in which she helps prepare to become guide or service dogs.

Kellen Scholarship Awards Program. Okunow is a past-time hiker/biker at the Working River King Kullen, and is attending LIU Post in the fall.

Steven Kelle, a 2017 graduate of Miller Place High School and a U.S. Air Force 20 National Guard member for Glenn, Samantha Glavin, who will begin her sophomore year at East Park High School in September, was recently named as a 2017-2018 National High School Lacrosse All-American. Glavin was selected to represent New York State at the National Lacrosse Clinic, which was held July 28-31 at the River City Springs in Rockwood, Va.

graduated from basic military training at Joint Base San Antonio-Lackland, San Antonio, Texas. Kelle is the son of Valerie and Steve Kelle of Miller Place.

www.heraldtribune.com
www.heraldtribune.com